

SAMPLE STUDENT BIOS (75-90 words in 3rd person)

Amy is a very talented young leader in her community. She has served as a member of Girl Scouts for 12 years and has completed her Bronze, Silver and Gold Awards. Amy has competed in USAG gymnastics since third grade and has been state champion in vault and floor multiple times during her tenure as an optional level 8 gymnast. Her passion for helping others is evident in her career choice where she will continue her degree plan from dual enrollment to pursue her doctorate in sports physical therapy.

Amanda was born in Chesapeake, Virginia. She spent her first four years overseas in Turkey where her family served as missionaries. Upon returning to the States, Amanda lived in Virginia until her family moved to Tampa, Florida in 2008. Amanda has been homeschooled since first grade and began dual enrolling at St. Petersburg College her junior year. She enjoys studying the Word, spending time with family and friends in nature, hiking and biking, reading and finding new outlets for artistic expression.

Jonah is a fun-loving, (sometimes wacky), compassionate person. After attending Christian school, he began his homeschool adventure in the 4th grade. He is thankful that homeschooling allowed him to explore interests such as acting and voiceover. Jonah loves to play all sports, practice his guitar, longboard, and spend time with his friends and family. He also likes to sing when no one is listening....or so he thinks! Jonah is very active in his church and plans to become a middle school leader in his youth group.

Ben attended Tampa Christian Community School until 3rd grade before he began his homeschool adventure at Trinity Homeschool Academy. He is dual enrolled at St. Petersburg College and is going to transfer after getting his AA degree. He is not sure what he wants to do for a living, but hopefully he will figure that out. Ben has a love for playing classical guitar and has been playing for 7 years. He also loves spending time with family and friends and has a passion for being a servant of the Lord.

Dawn has been homeschooled since the 7th grade. She started at Tampa Christian Community School in the 9th grade. She has always enjoyed singing, dancing, and acting since she was a little girl. She joined Dearmon C.A.S.T. during her freshman year and appreciates the relationships she has made in her time of being there. Dawn is currently dual-enrolled at Hillsborough Community College and plans to get her AA and pursue a degree in Occupational Therapy.
